Lon Po Po: A Red-Riding Hood Story from China, by Ed Young. The 1990 Caldecott Medal Winner.

This Caldecott Medal-winning, classic retelling of Little Red Riding Hood is one of the most celebrated picture books of our time. With characteristic flair and energy, award-winning artist Ed Young illustrates the ancient Chinese version of the favorite fairy tale Little Red Riding Hood. Young's vibrant, yet delicate, pastels and watercolors add drama to the deftly translated story. ★ "'A gripping variation of Red Riding Hood. This is an outstanding achievement that will be pored over again and again.'" –School Library Journal, starred review

Three sisters staying home alone are endangered by a hungry wolf who is disguised as their grandmother in this Chinese retelling.

A collection of thirty-six poems about all kinds of cats, from old grumbling cats to proud cats who sit tall, by poets including Eve Merriam, Jane Yolen, John Ciardi, and T. S. Eliot.

In this version of "Little Red Riding Hood," set in Ghana, a young girl fails to heed Granny's warning about the dangers of talking to strangers.

Glowing, full-color watercolor illustrations capture the essence of the ancient Chinese tale, which predates the familiar Western story of Cinderella.

Three sisters staying home alone are endangered by a hungry wolf who is disguised as their grandmother.

A wise dragonfly helps a despondent cricket realize that he is special in his own way.

Three sisters staying home alone are endangered by a hungry wolf who is disguised as their grandmother.

When her grand-mère comes down wit' de flu, this Cajun Little Red knows what she has to do. With her witty cat, TeJean, she sets off in a pirogue to bring Grand-mère some gumbo. Who should she meet upon the way, but that big ol' swamp gator, Claude! Mean ol' Claude may want to gobble up Petite Rouge, but she and TeJean have a better idea. Before long, they have Claude running back to the bayou where he belongs!
